

Last week was rather dull in dramatic circles. The lectures of Dr. Longshore Potts were the only attraction at the Opera House after the "Old Homestead." This week Prof. Bristol's horse troupe will occupy three days there and "The Police Patrol" will close the week, while the universal favorite, "The County Fair," will hold the boards a week to-night.

THE POLICE PATROL.
The Opera House management announce the first production in this city, on Friday and Saturday evenings next with a special day performance Saturday, of Scott Marble's successful melodrama "The Police Patrol." It is a simple but direct story of police life, and depicts in a vivid and taking manner the inner workings of that department which means so much for the police safety. The principal portion of the scenic embellishment are taken from localities made famous by their association with historical events. One act introduces a reproduction of Haymarket Square, Chicago, the scene of the great Anarchist uprising, and shows the policeman's monument which marks the spot where the bomb was thrown.

PROF. BRISTOL'S EQUINE.
As already announced in our columns, Prof. D. M. Bristol and his school of thirty educated mules and ponies will exhibit in the Opera House three nights this week, commencing Monday. A matinee will be given on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. The following is from the Newark, N. J., Daily Advertiser: "A large and appreciative audience greeted Prof. D. M. Bristol's Equine school at Miner's theatre last evening. Almost everyone is aware that this remarkable troupe consists of about thirty wonderfully trained and beautiful horses, the tricks and antics of which are so numerous and varied that they are able to entertain an audience for a whole evening. The opening of the show takes the form of a school, in which various tasks and duties are assigned to the horses."

LOTUS GLEE CLUB CONCERT.
Seats will be reserved at F. W. Baumer & Co.'s at 8 o'clock this morning for the famous glee club concert at the Opera House next Thursday. The Boston Herald speaks of the club as follows: "The Lotus Glee Club made its first appearance here this season on this occasion. There is no need to add a word to the commendation already given these singers. They have made their name and fame known on both continents, and richly merit all the high praise that has been given them at home and abroad. The selections were veritable gems in quartette singing and they were applauded with enthusiasm after each appearance. Miss Marshall found high favor."

THE COUNTY FAIR.
The dramatic novelty of the season will be the holding of Neil Burgess' "County Fair" at the Opera House Monday evening, February 8. This is announced as the farewell tour of this charming depiction of rural life with its merry husking bee, old-fashioned country dance and the somewhat remarkable running race horse scene, in which three "kings of the turf" are ridden by well-known professional jockeys, a three-quarter-mile contest in full view of the audience by means of Mr. Burgess' patent race track, adjustable and equally effective on all stages. The play will be presented here with the same perfection of detail that characterized its four years' run in New York, one year in Boston and six months in Chicago. A half hundred of people will appear in the production, which is embellished with two carloads of scenic and mechanical environments.

"OH, WHAT A NIGHT!"
This is the name of a play which will be at the Grand next Friday and Saturday, and is presented by Charles A. Loder and a strong company of eighteen vocalists, dancers and comedians. It is said to be the greatest company that Mr. Loder has ever had.

IRVING MOSCOW'S SHOW.
At the Grand this evening the Irwin Bros. Specialty Co., which is said to be away up in the Vandeville line, will commence a three nights' engagement. The company is well spoken of by the press where it has appeared, and is composed of many of the noted artists in the specialty line. Seats are now on sale at Genter's store, and they are going off just enough to show that the Grand will be packed to the doors to-night.

STAGE SNOWFLAKES.
Favorites at the Footlights—Attractions that are to come.

The attempt of the new management of the Paris Grand opera house to have cheap opera, beginning at 5 p. m., has been a failure, although it promised well. The reduction of the price of a stall from 15 francs to 24 francs brought washerwomen and their families, and peasants, and suburban shop-keepers by the hundred. It costs $2,600 to raise the curtain, but at the popular scale the house only holds $1,200.

When Prof. Bristol first exhibited trained horses he had but six, so it will be seen that his present school of thirty is a mammoth affair when compared to what he had then, and it demonstrates the fact that he has been remarkably successful in catering to the public, who have so generously rewarded him for his efforts to give them wholesome and instructive entertainments.

Dan Rice, once a resident of Wheeling, and the greatest of all the old-time talking clowns, was born in New York city sixty-seven years ago. Today Hamilton met him the other day and asked him when he was born. "I was born," answered the old clown, with a merry twinkle of the eye, "when the last crop of currants was gathered in Chatham street."

Margaret Mather has shelled "Joan of Arc," and she will try her fortune with "The Egyptian," a dramatization of Hugo's "Hunchback of Notre Dame."

Miss Myra Mirella, formerly with Emma Abbott, has been engaged as prima donna of the Courted Opera Company, in place of Rita Selby. Miss Mirella will join the company to-day in Toledo.

Marvey & McGowan's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. will play in the Martin's Ferry Opera House on Thursday night, and Mattie Vickers on Saturday night.

Frank Henuig is winning golden opinions everywhere as Mr. Keene's leading man. He was highly complimented by the Louisville papers last week.

Frank Mayo has dropped "The Athlete" and gone back to his money winner, "Davy Crockett."

It is reported that a reconciliation has taken place between Louis James and Marie Wainwright.

"Blue Jeans" is again running in New York, and drawing as big as when first seen there.

Mattie Vickers will be here two nights next week in "Edgewood" and "The Circus Queen."

Irving spent $75,000 in mounting Henry VIII at his theatre in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendal have just invested $50,000 in a house in London.

Scanlan is improving and he may be on the road next season.

Jannuschek will appear at the Opera House this month.

"The County Fair" will be at Bellaire Saturday night.

Mansfield has a new play, "Ten Thousand a Year."

MARTIN'S FERRY.
Deaths Yesterday—Y. M. C. A. Talk.

Church, Personal and Other Notes.
Miss Hannah Edwards, an aged maiden lady of Martin's Ferry, died on Saturday at the family residence on Walnut street, aged 75 years. She was a member of the M. E. church and a teacher in the Sunday school for many years and was loved by all who knew her. Two brothers, John and Josie Edwards, and a niece, Miss Georgie Edwards, made their home with her. The funeral will take place from the M. E. church at 2:30 to-day.

Mr. W. H. Pholey, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Steubenville, talked on "Personal Purity" in the Commercial hall yesterday afternoon. The talk was under the auspices of the Martin's Ferry Y. M. C. A. and was instructive as well as interesting. There was a good attendance.

Earl V. Dallison, aged nineteen years, residing on First street, near the blast furnace, died yesterday from the grip. He was a first class young man, and was the only support of a widowed mother. His father died when he was only two years old.

Union services of the Presbyterian churches were held in the Presbyterian church last night. Rev. William Wier, of the Reform Union and formerly of Martin's Ferry, occupied the pulpit.

An unknown admirer of Rev. Mr. Morse, pastor of the Baptist church, sent him $20 on Saturday through the postoffice. The donor said he was not a member of Mr. Morse's church.

Rev. Charles O'Meara, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, preached at Washington, Pennsylvania, yesterday and his pulpit was filled by Rev. Jacob Brittingham, of Wheeling.

Mr. J. B. Clark will take charge of the Hotel Maywood to-day. He will change the name. Mr. Maywood, the retiring proprietor, will go to the World's Fair city.

The case of John Kain, charged with stealing pay checks at the Elston Glass Works, will be given a preliminary examination next Wednesday.

Watt Cline and George Baker, both glassworkers, were locked up late Saturday night for disorderly conduct.

Rev. H. N. Campbell, of the Presbyterian church, spent Sunday at his home at Holiday Cove, West Virginia.

The legislative committee of the Trades' Assembly met at Bridgeport on Saturday night.

John Armstrong, Esq., is critically ill.

Entirely Satisfactory.
W. J. Arkell, publisher of Judge and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, writes:

"JUDGE BUILDING,
Cor. Fifth Ave. and Sixteenth St.,
New York, January 14, 1891.

"About three weeks since, while suffering from a severe cold which had settled on my chest, I applied an ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER, and in a short time obtained relief.

"In my opinion, these plasters should be in every household, for use in case of coughs, colds, sprains, bruises, or pains of any kind. I know that in my case the results have been entirely satisfactory and beneficial."

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

Grant News for the Children.

At last the Cure of St. Vitus' Dance, Epilepsy and other fits has been discovered. The little ones need no longer suffer from these terrible nervous ailments. The remedy is the great nerve cure, Dr. Greene's Nervine, and the enormous demand for this medicine in all nervous diseases of children has finally established it as the great children's remedy. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Druggists, $1.00.

"It affords me greatest pleasure to state that my daughter, who was a sufferer from St. Vitus' Dance, and who was treated for same by prominent physicians in Brooklyn without result, was completely cured by using two bottles of Dr. Greene's Nervine."

PROF. J. M. ELWOOD,
43 Cornelia St., Brooklyn, N. Y."

FELL IN A FIT.

"My boy was very nervous, and had four or five fits every day. After using Dr. Greene's medicine three weeks he began to get well, and has had no fits since. Ten doctors gave him up as incurable. The doctors and my neighbors can hardly believe their eyes when they see my boy all strong and well."

MRS. EMMA SWEENEY,
19 Ballard St., Fall River, Mass."

Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 11th street, New York, can be consulted free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free.

Bellaire.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

William Geller, the man whose pockets were raided by James Manley, Scott Laville and John Rock, at the Baltimore & Ohio depot, some time since, and who was put under bond for his appearance against the culprits before the grand jury at St. Clairsville, was surrendered by his bondsman Saturday, and Mayor McGowan will send him to St. Clairsville this morning.

Col. C. L. Poorman is home from Columbus and is fully satisfied that Governor McKinley is committed to the appointment of a railroad man for commissioner of railroads, the place he asked for. The governor, however, treated the colonel very kindly in the matter, and it is not improbable that he will receive an appointment of some kind at his hands.

The people of Belmont street expect to have that street cross the Baltimore & Ohio tracks in the Second ward at grade as soon as that company gets the Denwood yards in shape for general use, as that will take much of the business away from here and lessen the danger of such a crossing. Negotiations have been going on for some time.

To-morrow being the anniversary of the organization of Epworth Leagues, young people's religious associations, will be appropriately observed by the various Christian societies in this city with appropriate services at the First M. E. church.

James D. Arick, living near St. Clairsville, passed through here on his way to Georgia, where he intends remaining until spring. He is now president of the Georgia Fruit Company, succeeding his father, the late Charles H. Arick.

Jack Burke has been tendered the place as local police for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company here, just vacated by Henry Nagle, but may not accept. In that event Marshal Shepherd, who declines to run again, may take it.

The property of William Findlay, the well known contractor, was sold at sheriff's sale last Saturday afternoon to satisfy judgments of Joseph F. Hutchinson and the Belmont Savings and Loan Company.

Chairman Hahn will be the state oil inspector unless he declines the "fat take," and this is hardly probable in view of the fact that it pays $10,000 a year and deputies do the work.

The Belmont county farmers' institute meets at St. Clairsville on Thursday and Friday of this week. The opening address will be made by the president, Hon. A. T. McKelvey.

Of the twenty-three persons who took the teachers' examination here last Saturday, eighteen of them were members of the graduating class of the Bellaire high school.

Rev. J. A. Donahay, of Barnesville, will assist Rev. L. W. Barr in the services at the First Presbyterian church this week.

Beware of Frauds.—Be sure you get the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It cures Colds, Croup, Asthma, Deafness and Rheumatism. DAW

La Grippe.
No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. This remedy also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it during the epidemics of the past two years we have yet to learn of a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.
